Senior Business Development Manager – Health & Social Care

€80k + bonus

Dublin 18

This is one of the most exciting opportunities due to a restructure of this organisation a new company has been established with a ready made workforce and you will be joining as one of the new senior leadership team. This successful organisation have set out their stall for ambitious growth plans and the restructure is the first step in that journey. With a proven track record and known for excellence in the services they provide you are going to love talking about their story.

Your role will take ownership of the Business Development strategy for the business, having responsibility across all service areas, marketing, customer engagement and sales. With very obvious opportunities to develop, within partner organisation and new service offerings and you will bring a proven track record of evolving new business ideas and the ability to bring these through.

It is ideal that you have considerable experience within Health and/ or Social Care, and the academic track record to go along with that, and with a track record of winning business in a commercial leadership role.
