Job Description

Join Liberty Recycling – Warehouse Operative (Community Employment Programme)

Be Part of Something Purposeful

Are you looking to build practical skills, gain work experience, and grow in a supportive environment?

Liberty Recycling is a rehabilitation and stabilisation programme. We are seeking a Warehouse Operative through the Community Employment (CE) Scheme.

This is a unique opportunity to work with an organisation that blends social impact, sustainability, and personal recovery support.

About the Role:

As a Warehouse Operative, you'll play a key role in sorting, processing, and managing donated goods in a busy, eco-conscious warehouse.

Your Duties Will Include:

- Picking, grading, and sorting donated clothing
- Operating baling machinery
- Loading/unloading deliveries and handling stock
- Forklift operation (training provided)
- Keeping your work area clean, safe, and organised

What You'll Need:

- Physically fit and comfortable with manual work
- A willingness to learn – no experience needed, full training provided
- Must meet **Community Employment (CE) eligibility**:

CE Eligibility:

- Mainstream CE: You must be unemployed and on Jobseeker's payments for a minimum of 12 months
- T-Code CE (Recovery Focused): You must be in recovery and actively engaged in a stabilisation or rehab programme to be eligible.

What We Offer:

- Free daily lunch and canteen access
- Educational training with a qualified teacher
- Skill-building and work experience in a structured setting
- Personal development and certified training opportunities
- Access to Liberty's on-site rehabilitation and support services
- A chance to contribute to a sustainable, community-driven project

Ready to Take the Next Step?

This role could be the beginning of a new chapter. Contact us directly at 014193999/ info@libertys.ie or your Intreo Office to check your eligibility and get referred today.

We look forward to hearing from you soon
