Job Description

The Office of Public Works now invites applications for the position of Craft Stonemason and Stonecutter in the area covered by the Killarney National Monuments District.

Competition Reference 2025/033

Essential Eligibility Requirements (at the closing date) CLOSING DATE EXTENDED)

Candidates must have, on the closing date for receipt of applications the following minimum requirements:

An Advanced Certificate in the Craft of Stonemasonry and Stonecutting;

or

An Advanced Certificate Craft Brick and Stonelaying;

(or equivalent Level 6 on the National Framework of Qualifications);

Note:  Irish or Foreign qualification (in a similar field of study) recognised as equivalent to the above qualifications on the Irish National Framework of Qualifications.

Note: Apprenticeship served in the above, evidence of craft and exams completed successfully will be necessary and copies should be submitted with your application.

A minimum of 3 years' relevant work experience (post qualification);

(Specific training in stonework may be taken as fulfilling this requirement)

A full, clean and current driving licence, category B & W* and use of own transport;

Note: * (1) If your Irish driving licence is restricted to driving cars with an automatic transmission only (denoted by the code 78 appearing on the licence), you are not eligible.

(2) From 1 January 2021 if you are resident in Ireland and hold a UK/Ni driving licence it is no longer valid to drive on here in Ireland. It is not legal for driving purposes and must therefore be exchanged.

It is vital that you have a valid driving licence and that you are legally allowed to drive in Ireland by exchanging a UK/NI licence for an Irish driving licence. Further information available on: www.ndls.ie.
