Job Description

Are you an experienced Skin Therapist with Electrolysis looking to step into leadership? Do you dream of working in a vibrant, central location without the burden of late evenings or weekend shifts? This is your chance to join Elmes Skincare Clinic – a boutique, results-driven clinic located in the heart of Temple Bar, Dublin 2. We're expanding our team and seeking a talented, passionate therapist ready to progress into a Trainee Manager role with full training, mentorship, and support. Both full and part time available.

This is more than just a job – it's a unique opportunity to grow into a leadership role in one of Dublin's most respected specialist clinics. We can't wait to meet the right person to join our journey!

Primary Duties

As part of your dual-role as Skin Therapist & Trainee Manager, you will:

- Deliver expert electrolysis treatments (Apilus xCell technology)
- Provide a variety of high-performance skin treatments (full training provided)
- Lead by example with excellent customer service and communication skills
- Support clinic operations, including front-of-house/reception
- Participate in management training and assist with team coordination
- Help drive retail sales with Clarena, Dermaceutic & Heliocare products

Training Provided In:

- Clarena and Dermaceutic Cosmeceutical Facials
- Galvanic/Sonophoresis
- Dermaceutic Peels
- Microcurrent Therapy
- Nanoneedling & Microneedling
- No-Needle Mesotherapy
- Radio Frequency & LED Light Therapy
- Clinic administration and management systems
