Job Description

SHL Distributors are chimney engineers based in Cork City but operating throughout the Republic of Ireland & Northern Ireland with a smaller export business selling in Europe. Our core business is the manufacture and distribution of chimney products through all the main builder merchant groups, independent builder providers, hardware stores & stove / fireplace shops. Our main product line is a complete range of stainless-steel chimney cowl which we designed here at our Tramore Road facility. We also distribute premium quality flue components – namely, twin wall flexible liner, AGC thermal wrap, vitreous enamel stove pipe, twin wall rigid liner and a large variety of adapters and fittings which aid fitters when installing our products.

We are now seeking to recruit a full-time warehouse operative to work in our warehouse.
