Job Description

Radox Health continues to be at the forefront of clinical diagnostics, dedicated to improving health worldwide with our disruptive technology and innovative diagnostic solutions. Our staff are at the heart of everything we do and achieve. We have an opportunity for a Phlebotomist within the Radox Health clinic in Dublin city centre.

In line with Care Quality Commission guidelines, the successful candidate will be required to undergo a Garda Vetting check.

Location: 10 Suffolk Street, Dublin D02 X854

Contract Offered: Full time, Permanent.

Working Hours / Shifts: 5 days per week, between Monday and Saturday. Exact hours are 7.40am to 4.20pm on a Monday and Saturday and 6.40am to 3.20pm, Tuesday to Friday.

What does the Phlebotomist role involve?

This role is responsible for ensuring customers have an excellent experience from the moment they enter our clinic, taking blood samples from both private and corporate clients. This is a varied role that may also include the following responsibilities:

- Conduct comprehensive client appointments, including blood and urine sample collection, personal health measurements, and data entry into our Patient Information Systems (PIS).
- Demonstrate sensitive communication to ensure client understanding and consent.
- Maintain accurate records in PIS, uploading all relevant documentation.
- Represent the company professionally at offsite events and appointments.
- Engage in upselling and cross-selling at our private health clinic.

- Proactively drive sales and exceed targets.
- Complete company forms, specimen labelling, and laboratory test order forms accurately.
- Demonstrate high IT literacy to manager various software systems and daily tasks.

Essential criteria:

- Previous phlebotomy experience
- Phlebotomy certificate of competence
- Flexibility with working hours, as required by the business inclusive of evenings and weekends.
- Exemplary customer service skills and experience.
- Ability to manage existing clientele and generate new clientele at the same time.
- High level of IT literacy.

Desirable criteria:

- Experience in a private healthcare setting.
- Proficiency in the use of Microsoft packages.
- Confidence and experience working internal / external events.
- Sales / Retail experience.
- Valid driving license
