Job Description

Feale Print & Design Ltd, based in Abbeyfeale, Co. Limerick, is seeking a Graphic Designer – Print, Web & Digital to join our small but dynamic team. We're passionate about creativity, problem-solving, and supporting our local community.

In this role, you'll bring ideas to life across print, signage, web, and digital channels. From designing logos, brochures, and signage to building and maintaining WordPress websites with basic SEO, no two days will be the same. You'll also create engaging social media content for clients while liaising directly with them to ensure their vision is met from concept through to completion.

As part of a hands-on team, you may also get involved in print production and finishing processes (training provided), making this a role for someone who enjoys variety, ownership, and seeing their designs produced in the real world.

This is a full-time, on-site position in Abbeyfeale—perfect for someone who wants to grow their career in a supportive, creative environment while working on diverse projects.

Experience in creating content for social media platforms.
