Job Description

Are you an experienced vet who loves surgery, enjoys leadership, and is ready for the next step in your career? At Palmerstown Vets, we are offering an exciting opportunity for a Senior Veterinary Surgeon. Career progression is possible for the right person.

We are one of Dublin's few remaining independent small animal hospitals, with a caseload of 75% cats and dogs and 25% exotics. With two vets already holding exotic certificates and two more in training, you will see a wide variety of cases that you won't encounter elsewhere in the city. We are looking for a dog and cat vet mainly. We are happy for you to help with the exotics caseload also, but this is not a requirement.

As part of our team, your voice matters. We move quickly, support each other, and value initiative – whether that's in patient care, client care, nursing support, or developing new services and equipment.

We are looking for a vet who:

Has a strong surgical foundation (soft tissue, dentistry, comfortable with everyday surgical caseloads)

Is confident with medicine and at least basic ultrasound skills

Leads by example – supporting, motivating, and developing the team

Is proactive, collaborative, and committed to progressing standards of care

Wants to take ownership and contribute to shaping the future of our practice

The role:

Full-time position (flexible working pattern considered)

Senior clinical role with a clear pathway and more responsibility

Salary €60,000–€80,000, depending on experience

Based in Palmerstown, Dublin, possibility of spending time at our new second site opening soon.

What we offer:

Independent practice ethos – your ideas and decisions matter

A supportive, kind, and fun team environment

Unlimited CPD and genuine support for further qualifications

VCI fees paid

20 days annual leave (or 4 working weeks if on a 4-day rota)

Birthday off

Paid charity day

Uniforms provided

Easy to get to, easy to enjoy working here:

Free parking (next to Aldi)

Quick access to the M50

Cafés nearby, riverside park opposite, and Liffey Valley Shopping Centre just a short walk away

If you are a motivated veterinary surgeon with strong surgical skills who wants to step into a leadership role while enjoying the benefits of working in a supportive and independent hospital, we would love to meet you.
