Job Description

Kitchen Porter – Dublin 4

We are seeking a Kitchen Porter to join a busy, high-volume healthcare kitchen in Dublin 4. This hands-on role is essential to keeping the kitchen running smoothly, supporting hygiene, food preparation, and organisation. Ideal for candidates with experience in healthcare or high-volume kitchens who thrive in fast-paced environments.

Key Responsibilities

Maintain cleanliness and organisation of kitchen areas, equipment, and utensils in a high-volume, fast-paced environment

Wash dishes, cookware, and utensils efficiently to support ongoing service

Assist with basic food prep tasks such as peeling, chopping, and measuring

Stock ward pantries and beverage stations

Record temperatures and assist with HACCP compliance

Work closely with kitchen and ward staff to ensure smooth, hands-on kitchen operations

Requirements:

6–12 months' experience in a high-volume, hands-on kitchen; healthcare experience is a plus

Basic knowledge of HACCP and food safety standards

Legal right to work in Ireland and Garda Vetting clearance

Ability to provide 5 years of work references

Flexible and reliable, able to work weekdays, weekends, and Bank Holidays

Team player with strong communication skills and a can-do attitude

Salary & Benefits:

€17.53/hour, with Double Pay on Sundays & Bank Holidays

Full-time, daytime hours (typically 7:00 am – 6:30 pm)

Varied shifts Monday to Sunday depending on client needs

Supportive, team-focused workplace culture

Opportunities for training, skill development, and career progression

Competitive pay scale with scheduled reviews to recognise growth and contribution.
