Job Description

Full-Time | Arbour Hill and On the Road

We are an artisan wholesale food company looking for someone who brings more than just driving skills. We want a food-lover, a self-starter, and a people person who enjoys building relationships and representing a brand with pride.

As our Deliveries and Customer Experience Specialist, you will deliver artisan products to customers, support the warehouse team, and act as one of the key faces of our business. You will need strong organisation, excellent customer service, and a natural eye for spotting opportunities to support — and grow — our customer base.

What You Will Do:

- Deliver orders accurately, on time, and with great customer service
- Build strong relationships with chefs, retailers, and food businesses
- Represent our artisan brand with knowledge, enthusiasm, and professionalism
- Assist in the warehouse with stock, organisation, and dispatch
- Maintain a clean, well-organised van and help with general duties when needed
- Keep orders organised and help ensure next-day deliveries are ready
- Identify potential new business opportunities during regular customer interactions

What You Bring:

- A genuine passion for great food and artisan products
- A friendly, proactive attitude and strong communication skills
- A reliable, organised approach to your work
- Business awareness and the confidence to notice and act on new opportunities
- Full, clean driving licence
