Job Description

Lennon Motor Centre, Athlone, is seeking a general garage operative to join a dependable, customer-first workshop team. This opportunity can help you achieve your career and financial targets while working in an environment built on trust, quality and genuine care for both customers and colleagues.

The Role Involves:

- Tyre fitting, balancing and puncture repairs carried out with precision and efficiency
- Assisting with general workshop duties to support smooth daily operations
- Maintaining a clean, safe and organised workspace in line with industry standards
- Providing friendly, honest customer service that reflects Lennon Motor Centre's values
- Supporting mechanics and team members where needed to ensure excellent service delivery

We're Looking For:

- Experience in tyre fitting or a similar role (training can be provided for the right candidate)
- Strong work ethic and willingness to learn
- Ability to work efficiently in a busy workshop
- Good communication skills and a positive attitude
- Commitment to safety, reliability and customer care

We Offer:

- A stable role within a respected Athlone motor centre
- Opportunities to grow your skills and responsibilities
- A supportive team environment that values fairness and respect
- Clear pathways to help you reach your career goals
- A workplace culture built on honesty, teamwork and quality service.

If you're motivated, hands-on and eager to build your future with a trusted local business, we'd be delighted to hear from you. Your remuneration will be negotiated, taking into account your experience and commitment.
