Job Description

Business Development Manager

Dublin City Centre

Salary up to €50k, based on experience

Working with this well-known, and multi-site venue, you will work closely with the Sales Director and manage all BD opportunities across various industries.

As the Business Development Manager, you will represent the company at sales meetings, working with existing clients while also generating new business.

This is a strategic role, one that requires really strong commercial awareness and the ability to forecast and report on sales and revenue.

Ideally you will have 2-3 years' business development experience in a hotel, conference or events company.

Please apply today for immediate consideration!
