Job Description

Killaloe Veterinary Clinic Limited is seeking an experienced Animal Veterinary Surgeon to join our friendly and supportive mixed veterinary practice in Co. Clare. This role is companion animal-only, based within a well-established mixed practice environment.

We are looking for a vet with strong surgical and medical experience, who is confident in managing their own cases from start to finish and enjoys working to a high clinical standard. The annual salary is €34K-€50K and working hours is 39 hours per week.

The Practice:

Our clinic is well equipped to support excellent clinical care, including:

IDEXX CBC biochemistry

Ultrasound

Digital X-ray

Fluid pumps

Cryotherapy

Full-time Registered Veterinary Nurses and student veterinary nurses throughout the year

You will be supported by a dedicated and experienced nursing team, allowing you to focus on clinical work and case progression.

The Ideal Candidate:

MVB (or equivalent) and eligible to register with the VCI

Proven experience in small animal surgery and medicine

Confident, proactive, and comfortable managing cases independently

A team player with good communication skills

What We Offer:

Competitive and flexible salary/package, depending on experience
Supportive, collegial working environment
Well-equipped clinic with excellent nursing support
Opportunity to develop clinical interests within a mixed-practice setting
Beautiful location in Killaloe, offering an excellent work-life balance

If you are a motivated companion animal vet looking for a flexible role in a supportive and well-equipped practice, we would love to hear from you.
