Job Description

Practice Overview

We are a well-established chiropractic practice based in Dublin, committed to delivering high-quality, patient-centred care. We are seeking a qualified and motivated Chiropractor to join our professional and supportive team.

Role Summary

The successful candidate will provide safe, effective chiropractic care to a diverse patient base, including assessment, diagnosis, treatment, and ongoing care planning. This is a 4-day per week position offered on a permanent contract, with a competitive annual salary of €50,000 starting.

Key Responsibilities

- Conduct thorough patient consultations, assessments, and physical examinations
- Diagnose musculoskeletal conditions and develop appropriate treatment plans
- Perform chiropractic adjustments and related therapies in line with best practice
- Accurately read and interpret X-rays for diagnostic and treatment purposes
- Maintain detailed and compliant patient records
- Provide patients with advice on posture, exercise, and lifestyle modifications
- Work collaboratively with other healthcare professionals as required
- Ensure compliance with all professional, ethical, and regulatory standards

Essential Requirements

- Fully qualified Chiropractor with recognised accreditation
- Eligible to practise as a Chiropractor in Ireland
- Strong clinical and diagnostic skills
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Professional, empathetic, and patient-focused approach
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team

Contract Details

- 4 days per week (specific days to be agreed)

Salary & Benefits

- €50,000 per annum (pro rata, based on a 4-day working week)
- Supportive and established clinical environment
- Existing patient base
- Opportunities for professional development
