Job Description

Project Fashion is expanding and looking for individuals who want a career in a creative space.

We are currently looking for a fashion sewing tutor for our weekly classes and seasonal camps teaching children aged between 7 to 15 years old and adult courses

The successful candidate will be passionate about fashion & design and will have strong garment construction skills. They will also have the enthusiasm to create a fun class and inspire the students to get excited by the prospect of working like a creative designer. The goal is to give the children the gift of a lifelong skill and instil the urge to go on to future studies and hopefully career paths within the fashion & design industry.

The successful candidates will possess the following skill set:

Degree in teaching visual arts and fashion

Machine sewing & garment construction skills essential.

Friendly, good communicator with students, parents and management.

Highly organised and IT proficient.

A mature individual who can work on their own initiative.

Works well within a team.

Inspirational and energetic.
