Application Details

In order to work in Ireland a non-EEA National, unless they are exempted, must hold a valid employment permit. Please review the Eligibility and requirements for an employment permit if you are unsure of your eligibility to apply for this vacancy.

Job Description

Tour Guides are required for the Irish Workhouse Centre, Portumna, County Galway for the 2026 tourist season. The ideal candidate will have excellent communication and people skills and an interest/qualification in history or a related discipline.

As a tour guide, your job will involve introducing visitors to the unique story of the Workhouse Centre. Guides will also be expected to provide general tourist advice on the region including local areas of historical and cultural interest.

There are no mandatory academic requirements and on the job training will be provided to successful candidates as required. Fluency in the English language is essential. Knowledge of another modern language would be an advantage but not essential.

Duties extend to giving presentations to visiting groups, completing research, various administrative and cash duties, cleaning and maintenance and other duties that may be assigned.

Note that these posts are funded under the Community Services Programme (Pobal), and applications are primarily sought from those in receipt of a Social Welfare Payment. We ask that you please confirm same on your letter of application.

Candidates will be short listed for interview.
