Job Description

About the Company

Sparsis Limited is a reputable Irish construction company based in Laraghcon, Lucan, Dublin, specialising in roofing, insulation, and general building works.

We are committed to providing high-quality craftsmanship and energy-efficient solutions across residential and commercial projects throughout Ireland.

We are currently seeking an experienced Roofing Tiler to join our professional team.

Main Responsibilities

- Install, repair, and maintain roof tiles, slates, and related materials to the highest standards.
- Prepare roof surfaces by removing old materials, applying underlay, and ensuring proper alignment.
- Cut and shape tiles to fit around chimneys, skylights, vents, and other roof structures.
- Apply sealants and waterproofing products to ensure roof durability and weather resistance.
- Inspect roofs to identify damage or leaks and perform necessary repairs.
- Comply with all health, safety, and quality regulations on-site.
- Maintain tools, materials, and work areas in a clean and organised condition.

Candidate Profile

- Minimum 2 years' experience as a Roofing Tiler or similar role in construction.
- Sound knowledge of roofing materials, installation techniques, and repair processes.
- Ability to read technical drawings and building specifications.
- Physically fit, confident working at heights, and safety-conscious.
- Strong attention to detail and commitment to quality work.
- Reliable, punctual, and capable of working independently or as part of a team.
- Must be available to work on-site in Dublin and across Ireland for 39 hours per week.

Benefits

Competitive hourly rate of €18.05, equivalent to approximately €36,605 per year.

Opportunity to work with a growing, well-established Irish construction company.

Supportive and professional working environment.

Training and development opportunities in roofing and energy-efficient building systems.
