Job Description

We are seeking a committed and dedicated individual to join our team and contribute to the growth, delivery, and continuous improvement of the MSc. in Applied Behaviour Analysis. The MSc in ABA is an intensive full-time postgraduate programme delivered over two years. The course aims to ensure that students become efficient in the practical application of the principles of applied behaviour analysis. The course provides theoretical, ethical, practical, and basic modules that involve face-to-face classes presented by qualified staff with expertise in Behaviour Analysis. Theory and practice are interwoven throughout the course. Class time includes lectures, interactive sessions, seminars, and group work. Students are required to actively engage in the content and process through discussion and demonstration, including reference to their own work experiences to integrate theory and practice. This course has been verified by ABAI as meeting the Fifth Edition (6th Ed Test Content Outline), 315-hour coursework requirement for those wishing to sit the Board Certified Behaviour Analyst® or Board Certified Assistant Behaviour Analyst® examinations. The course is also accredited by the Psychological Society of Ireland (PSI) enabling eligible graduates to apply to become Chartered Behavioural Psychologists.
