Job Description

We are currently looking for fashion sewing tutors for our weekly seasonal camps running at our Dublin venues teaching children aged between 7 to 15 years old.

The successful candidate will be passionate about fashion & design and will have strong garment sewing skills. They will also have the enthusiasm to create a fun class and inspire the students to get excited by the prospect of working like a creative designer. The goal is to give the children the gift of a lifelong skill and instil the urge to go on to future studies and hopefully career paths within the fashion and design industry.

The successful candidates will possess the following skill set:

Machine sewing and garment sewing skills essential.

Friendly, good communicator with students, parents and management.

Highly organised and IT proficient.

A mature individual who can work on their own initiative.

Works well within a team.

Inspirational and energetic.

Well groomed.

Loves to work with children

- Sector: arts, entertainment and recreation
