Job Description

Treasure Tots Nursery, established in 1999, is a project dedicated to providing a high quality preschool care and education service in the Ballyfermot area. We are a community based business and a registered charity. We cater for 61 children from 1 year up to 6 years in a caring and nurturing environment.

The nursery now wishes to recruit a Community Employment Supervisor to join our busy team to support 18 participants to develop their personal, and work related skills and assist them on their pathway to achieving a QQI full major award in childcare.

Key Responsibilities:

- Oversee the delivery of work experience and training programmes
- Provide day-to-day supervision of staff on-site
- Support staff in developing their skills, qualifications, and confidence
- Monitor and report on staff progress to the Sponsoring Committee
- Manage personnel, financial, and material resources in line with CE Scheme guidelines
- Ensure compliance with health and safety, training standards, and DSP requirements

Skills and Experience Required:

- Strong leadership, communication, and organisational skills
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, hands-on environment
- Energetic and proactive attitude, with a passion for supporting others
- Experience in supervising staff and/or working with community programmes
- A background in warehousing, operations, or training is desirable but not essential

Eligibility:

This position is funded through the Department of Social Protection's CE Scheme. Eligible candidates must have a minimum of 3 years supervisory experience.
