Job Description

We are seeking a results-driven Marketing Manager to lead the planning and execution of strategic marketing initiatives aligned with the company's growth objectives. The role involves analysing market trends, customer behaviour, and competitive activity to identify opportunities, as well as designing and implementing market research to support data-driven decision-making. The successful candidate will translate insights into effective strategies across product positioning, pricing, and promotional activities. The Marketing Manager will work closely with internal teams to ensure alignment between marketing and business goals, oversee advertising campaigns, monitor performance, and optimise outcomes. The role also includes managing budgets, evaluating return on investment, and ensuring consistent brand communication across all channels, contributing directly to the company's commercial performance.
