Job Description

Ward & Burke Construction's Fabrication Yard in Creggs is expanding, and we're looking for highly skilled fabrication workers to join our team supporting major construction projects across Ireland and the UK.

All fabrication work is carried out in our Creggs yard, producing high-quality components for large-scale infrastructure projects on sites throughout Ireland and the UK.

This is an excellent opportunity to be part of significant projects where quality and precision are key.

What We're Looking For:

- Strong experience in high-quality MIG welding
- Ability to work to a high standard with minimal supervision
- Experience reading and working from fabrication drawings
- Commitment to safety, accuracy, and workmanship

What We Offer:

- Competitive pay rates
- Ongoing, long-term work tied to major Ireland & UK construction projects
- Opportunity for progression
- A professional, safety-driven working environment

If you're a skilled fabricator who takes pride in top-quality work and wants to contribute to large, high-profile projects, we want to hear from you.
