Job Description

We are looking for a creative, independent stylist to join our vibrant studio family. This is a self-employed (chair rental or commission-split) role designed for someone who loves their craft but values their personal time.

The Role

You will run your own column within our supportive and high-energy environment. We provide the space and the vibe; you bring the talent and a can do attitude. Minimum 2 years of consistent experience on a busy salon floor. The culture is a fun, empowering, and strictly "drama-free" environment. Exceptional hair services with a personal touch.

We believe that a happy stylist creates beautiful hair. We have built a team where empowerment isn't just a buzzword—it is our daily standard. True Work-Life Balance: Set your own hours and manage your own diary. Empowering Environment - We celebrate each other's wins and share industry tips. Zero Micro-management: You are the boss of your column we are just here to support your growth. Proven Track Record - At least 2 years of experience managing a full column of clients. Confident in all aspects of cutting, styling, and coloring. Business Mindset: Ability to manage your own bookings, payments - coaching will also be provided. A team-player attitude and a passion for making clients feel incredible.

If you are tired of the "grind" and want a professional home that respects your boundaries and fuels your creativity, we want to hear from you.
