About the Role

We are looking for an experienced Cleaning Operations professional to join our operational support team, supporting cleaning service delivery across multiple client sites in Leinster.

This is not a site-based management role. Instead, you will act as a key support partner to operational teams, helping drive operational excellence, service consistency, compliance, and continuous improvement across contracts.

This role would suit someone coming from a Cleaning Manager, Area Manager, or Regional Cleaning Manager background who has strong operational knowledge, understands the day-to-day challenges of service delivery, and can support teams with practical, hands-on guidance.

You will also support mobilisations, service improvements, and tender activities alongside operational and commercial teams.

What We're Looking For

Essential

Strong operational experience within contract cleaning or soft services

Background as a Cleaning Manager, Area Manager, Regional Manager, or similar

Experience supporting multiple sites or mobile operations

Strong understanding of cleaning operations, staffing, and service delivery standards

Commercial awareness including labour management, contractual hours, or budgets

Strong communication and stakeholder management skills

Hands-on, solutions-focused approach with the ability to support and influence teams
