Job Description

Film Set Minibus Driver – Dublin and Wicklow

We are currently seeking a reliable and professional minibus driver to join our transport operation supporting film production projects across Dublin and Wicklow.

This is a flexible position suited to someone who is self-motivated, dependable, and capable of working independently in a fast-paced environment. A minimum of 30 hours per week is available, with most weeks offering additional hours depending on project requirements.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the safe and professional transport of crew and personnel, maintaining cleanliness and presentation of the vehicle, carrying out daily walk-around inspections, and reporting any vehicle defects immediately.

Candidates must present themselves in a professional manner, maintain good personal presentation and hygiene standards, and dress appropriately for client-facing work on active production sites.

Key Requirements:

- Full clean D1 or D driving licence
- Tachograph card (Desirable)
- CPC card (Desirable)
- Safe and responsible driving record
- Good communication and timekeeping skills
- Ability to work independently and follow schedules
- Flexible approach to working hours
- Professional attitude and appearance
- Room for bus parking overnight at employees home (desirable).

Immediate start available for the right candidate.
