Ambius – Horticultural Maintenance Technician

Ambius is seeking a Horticultural Maintenance Technician to join our Dublin branch covering Dublin and surrounding areas. This is an excellent opportunity for someone passionate about horticulture, plants, and customer service to join a global organisation.

At Ambius, we create and maintain interior and exterior plant displays, flowers, replica foliage, holiday décor, scenting, and air hygiene solutions for commercial clients. We are committed to creativity, sustainability, and delivering exceptional service.

The Role

As a Horticultural Maintenance Technician, you will maintain plant displays at customer sites while ensuring the highest standards of presentation and care.

Key responsibilities include:

Visiting customer sites according to route plans

Watering, pruning, fertilising, and maintaining plants

Monitoring plant health and preventing pests or diseases

Cleaning plants, containers, and display areas

Maintaining appropriate lighting and moisture conditions

Working safely with ladders and tall plant displays

Protecting customer premises during servicing

Driving a company vehicle across urban and rural locations

Why Join Rentokil Initial?

Competitive salary of €29,800 per annum
