Actively working toward QQI Level 5 (with Care Skills and Care of the Older Person modules complete)

Holds a valid People Moving & Handling Certificate

Has a full EU driver's licence and owns a car (essential for this role)

Good command of the English language, in written and spoken

Available to work every Saturday and Sunday

Can provide work and character references

Prepared to complete Garda Vetting (we cover the fee)

Experience with disabilities or Dementia training is a plus (not essential)

What You will Do:

Deliver personal care and home support to clients in their homes

Follow care plans tailored to each client's needs

Promote independence, dignity, and well-being

Maintain accurate daily care notes and report changes in condition

Adhere to infection prevention and control measures

Work collaboratively with supervisors and the wider care team

What We Offer:

Set weekend rosters with regular hours

PPE provided

Free induction and in-house training

Ongoing professional development

ID badge
