Job Description

The role is to work with the stocktake data we collect in our work providing stocktakes to retail clients throughout Ireland to provide insightful analysis, supporting the clients and our business goals. We want to use the information collected to assist our clients with insights about shrink trend analysis, Inventory variance analysis, replenishment planning, and data quality analysis as well as analysing and reporting internally on our own productivity and accuracy to find efficiencies and improvements in our operations.

Candidates must have a degree or post graduate qualification in Supply Chain Management or logistics or related discipline as well as demonstrated abilities in data analysis and report presentation. Experience and awareness in real world retail environments and data collection methodologies is necessary for the role.

The Company wishes to make an appointment to this role by 15 10 2026.
