Job Description

Early Years Educator – Full-time & Part-time

Urlingford Community Childcare Centre is seeking a caring, enthusiastic and professional Early Years Educator to join our supportive team. This is an excellent opportunity to work in a child-centred, community-based setting committed to high-quality Early Childhood Education and Care, inclusion and teamwork.

The successful candidate will support children's learning, development and wellbeing through nurturing, play-based experiences, while helping to maintain a safe, welcoming and inclusive environment for children and families. The role includes working as part of a team to plan and implement activities, respond to children's individual needs, maintain records, follow policies and procedures, and contribute positively to the daily running of the service.

What we offer:

Supportive and welcoming team environment

50% discount on childcare for staff

Flexible working hours / roster where possible

10 paid sick days per year (pro rata)

Additional annual leave days

Time in lieu for additional hours worked or CPD

Paid in-service CPD training days and ongoing professional development opportunities

What we are looking for:

Minimum QQI Level 5 in ECEC (8 modules) or equivalent

QQI Level 6 in ECEC or higher desirable

Experience in an ECEC or SAC setting desirable

Excellent communication and interpersonal skills

Knowledge of relevant regulations and good practice

Commitment to providing high-quality care and education

If you are passionate about early years practice and would like to join a service that values professionalism, flexibility and staff wellbeing, we would love to hear from you.

To apply: Please send your CV and cover letter to info@urlingfordchildcare.com
