Job Description

Healthcare Assistant (HCA) Jobs

Location: County Limerick

Salary: €14.50 per hour

Job Summary

We are recruiting Healthcare Assistants (HCAs) to provide person-centred care in residential healthcare settings across Ireland. Working under the supervision of nursing and management staff, you will support residents with daily living activities while ensuring dignity, safety, and wellbeing at all times.

Responsibilities

Assist residents with daily living needs, including dressing, bathing, grooming, eating, walking, and exercise.

Serve meals, support with feeding, and complete follow-up cleaning duties.

Deliver care in line with policies and procedures, respecting privacy, dignity, and confidentiality.

Establish positive, respectful relationships with residents that encourage independence.

Work collaboratively with the care team, recognising and supporting the skills of colleagues.

Comply with Health & Safety and infection control standards.

Report any ill-health, incidents, or accidents promptly to nursing staff.

Answer call bells and telephones, passing on accurate messages.

Maintain high standards of cleanliness and tidiness within the household.

Protect vulnerable adults from abuse and uphold safeguarding standards.

Maintain accurate documentation and records.

Support new staff and volunteers by offering help and guidance.

Contribute to a warm, homely, and respectful environment.

Person-Centred Qualities

At all times, HCAs are expected to work with empathy and from the heart. Key qualities include:

Respectful – valuing each resident’s life story and individuality

Accepting – recognising that feelings may be expressed through actions or words

Flexible – adapting to the resident, not rigid routines

Spontaneous – creating opportunities for meaningful social interaction

Supportive – expressing empathy and offering comfort

Growing – open to learning and reflecting on your own practice

Positive & Inspiring – making a genuine difference to residents’ lives
