Job Description

Sánas provides an alternative respite service for children and teenagers with intellectual disabilities and/or autism. Through our centre we provide a range of relaxing and engaging activities, as well as supporting engagement in local amenities.

Job role:

Sánas provides alternative respite support for children and young teenagers with an intellectual disability and/or autism. The centre operates an after school and weekend service during term time, and the centre is open every day during school holidays. Through our purpose-designed centres in Finglas, Balbriggan and Wicklow, We provide an environment that promotes a range of needs, from therapeutic and relaxation to stimulating and developmental. As well as on-site engagement, we also encourage the use of local indoor and outdoor community amenities.

Our team of Direct Support Workers are overseen by Senior Direct Support Workers and Team Leads who follow carefully developed person-centred plans for each person in the service. We are hiring enthusiastic people who are passionate about developing the lives of children and teenagers in their community.
