Legal Analyst - Data Protection Commission

Application Details

In order to work in Ireland a non-EEA National, unless they are exempted, must hold a valid employment permit. Please review the Eligibility and requirements for an employment permit if you are unsure of your eligibility to apply for this vacancy.

Job Description

The Data Protection Commission (DPC) is the national independent supervisory authority responsible for monitoring the application of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

The DPC currently has several vacancies for Legal Analysts. The role offers a unique and exciting opportunity to embrace new challenges, do purposeful work and make a real difference to the Irish State.

Legal Analysts play a key role in one of Europe's most prominent and active data protection regulators by supporting the DPC's regulatory and investigative functions. They also contribute to work of significant national and international importance, including the supervision of large multinational organisations based in Ireland and emerging responsibilities under EU regulatory frameworks such as the Artificial Intelligence Act.

Full details of the role, including specific eligibility requirements, is available on www.publicjobs.ie.

The closing date for receipt of completed applications is 3pm on Thursday, 16th July 2026.

We are committed to a policy of equal opportunity and encourage applications under all nine grounds of the Employment Equality Acts.
