Job Description

Liberty CE is currently seeking a Community Employment (CE) Supervisor to manage and support participants on our CE Scheme. This role involves supervising day-to-day operations, providing leadership and mentorship, and helping long-term unemployed individuals in recovery to progress into future employment and/or education.

Key Responsibilities:

- Oversee the delivery of work experience and training programmes
- Provide day-to-day supervision of staff on-site
- Support staff in developing their skills, qualifications, and confidence
- Monitor and report on staff progress to the Sponsoring Committee
- Manage personnel, financial, and material resources in line with CE Scheme guidelines
- Ensure compliance with health and safety, training standards, and DSP requirements

Skills and Experience Required:

- Strong leadership, communication, and organisational skills
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, hands-on environment
- Energetic and proactive attitude, with a passion for supporting others
- Experience in supervising staff and/or working with community programmes
- A background in warehousing, operations, or training is desirable but not essential

Eligibility:

This position is funded through the Department of Social Protection's CE Scheme. Eligible candidates must have a minimum of 3 years supervisory experience.
