Transport Operations and Commercial Driver - Apprenticeship

Job Description

First Year Apprentice Vacancy

Job Purpose

The Commercial Driving Apprentice will participate in a structured two-year development programme combining hands-on multidrop delivery driving with rotational experience across key logistics functions, including transport planning, fleet maintenance, and yard/shunter operations.

The purpose of the role is to develop fully qualified, competent, and safety-conscious commercial drivers with a broad operational understanding of the logistics and transport environment.

What You'll Do

As a Commercial Driving Apprentice, you'll begin by learning the fundamentals of multi-drop delivery driving before gaining hands-on experience across a number of key operational departments.

Throughout the programme you'll work alongside experienced colleagues and receive mentoring and structured training in areas including:

- Multi-drop delivery driving and customer service
- Safe vehicle operation and daily vehicle inspections
- Transport planning and route scheduling
- Fleet maintenance processes and vehicle compliance
- Yard operations and vehicle movements
- Health & Safety and regulatory compliance
- Manual handling, Electric Pallet Truck (EPT) and Tail Lift operation
- Customer communication and delivery procedures

As your experience grows, you'll take on increasing responsibility while working towards becoming a fully qualified professional commercial driver.

What You'll Learn

During your apprenticeship you'll gain practical experience in:

Driving Operations

- Safe and efficient multi-drop deliveries
- Vehicle safety inspections and defect reporting
- Route planning and time management
- Customer service and professional communication
- Road safety, Drivers' Hours Regulations and compliance

What We Offer

- Earn while you learn through a structured apprenticeship programme
- Practical experience across multiple areas of a busy logistics operation
- Full mentoring and support from experienced transport professionals
- Progression towards recognised commercial driving qualifications (Category C / CE as applicable)
- Ongoing training and development
- A clear career pathway within a growing transport business
- Opportunity for long-term employment upon successful completion of the programme

If you're ambitious, motivated and ready to build a rewarding career in the transport and logistics industry, we'd love to hear from you.
