Job Description

Little Hands Churchfield Afterschool Service

Churchfield Terrace West, Cork

Vacancy: School-Aged Care Team Leader – Full-Time

Little Hands Churchfield Afterschool Service is seeking an experienced, organised and enthusiastic School-Aged Care Team Leader to lead the day-to-day organisation and management of our afterschool programme for children aged 4–12 years.

Key duties include:

- * Leading and managing the daily operation of the afterschool programme.
- * Planning and overseeing creative, recreational, educational and age-appropriate activities.
- * Supervising, supporting and motivating the School-Aged Care team.
- * Building positive relationships with children, families, school staff and colleagues.
- * Supporting children's social, emotional, physical and cognitive development.
- * Promoting positive behaviour management and effective conflict resolution.
- * Ensuring compliance with relevant legislation, regulations, policies and procedures.
- * Maintaining accurate attendance, accident/incident and other required records.
- * Promoting health, safety, cleanliness and a welcoming environment.
- * Supporting risk assessments and best practice in health and safety.
- * Assisting the Centre Manager with programme development, evaluation and quality improvement.

Requirements:

* Minimum 2 years' experience working with school-aged children.

* Leadership or supervisory experience desirable.

- * QQI Level 6 or higher in Early Childhood Care & Education, Childcare, Social Care or related field.
- * First Aid Certificate, or willingness to obtain.
- * Child Protection training, or willingness to complete.
- * Excellent organisational, communication and leadership skills.
- * Ability to work independently and lead a team.
