Mystery Shopper – Self-Employed Earn 25 euros Mystery Shopper Visit + Purchase Budget for all of Ireland

Job Description

We are looking for reliable, self-motivated self-employed Mystery Shoppers to visit shops and businesses on behalf of our clients. We want to recruit in Ireland

This is a flexible opportunity where you choose assignments that suit your availability and location.

What you'll do

As a Mystery Shopper, you will visit a nominated shop or business and carry out a straightforward appointment or customer visit.

Depending on the assignment, you may be required to:

Visit a shop or business at an agreed time.

Follow a simple set of instructions during your visit.

Make a purchase up to a specified budget using a card payment machine.

Keep your receipt as proof of purchase for completing each mystery shopper visit.

A separate purchase budget to cover the item you are required to buy as part of the assignment.

Flexible assignments that can fit around your existing work or commitments.

The freedom to choose assignments that suit your availability.

The opportunity to complete multiple assignments where available.

Who we're looking for

You don't need previous mystery shopping experience. We are looking for people who are:

Reliable and organised.

Comfortable visiting different shops and businesses.

Confident using a card payment machine.

Able to follow instructions accurately.

Good at observing details and providing clear feedback.

Comfortable working independently.

Able to use a smartphone and access the internet to complete reports.

Self-employed role

This is a self-employed opportunity, not an employed position. You are responsible for managing your own availability and completing accepted assignments in accordance with the instructions provided.
