Job Description

This is a seasonal role, with shifts available all throughout Summer

Big Green Coach specialises in Sustainable Coach Travel to Irelands biggest live events from live music to sports events. Founded in 2009, the company partners with high-profile artists, major music festivals, stadium tours, football clubs and corporate clients as the official ticket and travel provider.

A small team of passionate industry professionals work collaboratively to manage all aspects of travel logistics, ensuring smooth, hassle-free journeys from start to finish.

Overview & Objectives:

Ahead of the 2027 event season, launching early next year... we are looking for enthusiastic and reliable individuals to support our Irish operations across a range of major events. These are paid opportunities focused on delivering smooth, safe, and memorable travel experiences for our customers.

Successful applicants will play a key role in coordinating transport logistics, assisting customers, and ensuring services run efficiently from departure through to arrival.

Please note:

We do not provide tickets for any of these events

By completing this form, you are purely registering your interest. We will contact you with positions once the season opens.

You must be over the age of 18 for all our positions.

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities will vary slightly depending on the role, but may include:

General Duties:

- Deliver excellent customer service at all times
- Assist with the safe and efficient movement of customers

- Support event operations teams with transport coordination
- Ensure clear communication with customers and team members
- Help maintain a well-organised and safe working environment

Transport Steward:

- Coordinate coach arrivals and departures on-site
- Manage customer flow and movement in busy environments
- Provide directions and information to customers
- Work closely with event staff to ensure smooth operations

Coach Rep:

- Check tickets and manage luggage loading
- Ensure timely departures
- Travel with passengers to the event location
- Support customer disembarkation and onsite organisation

Departure Steward:

- Assist at pickup locations to prepare coaches for departure
- Check tickets and oversee luggage handling
- Ensure customers board efficiently and on time
- Event Opportunities

We have multiple opportunities available across the following locations:

Croke Park

Thomond Park

Slane Castle
