Job Description

We are looking for an experienced Wall & Floor Tiler to join our team working on commercial construction projects throughout Ireland.

The role will involve the preparation and installation of wall and floor tiles, including ceramic, porcelain, natural stone and large-format tiles. You will work closely with construction managers, site managers and our head office team to ensure all work is completed to a high standard and within project deadlines.

You will be expected to work independently when required, accurately read drawings, take measurements and maintain a clean and safe working area.

Experienced wall and floor tiler.

Previous experience working on commercial construction projects preferred.

Strong knowledge of wall and floor preparation.

Experience installing ceramic, porcelain and natural stone tiles.

Proven experience installing large-format tiles is required.

Ability to safely handle, cut, position and install large-format tiles.

Ability to accurately measure, set out and cut tiles.

Ability to read construction drawings.

Good attention to detail and pride in the quality of finished work.

Dependable with a strong work ethic.

Able to work independently and as part of a team.

Fluent spoken English for telephone, site and face-to-face communication.

Basic written English to complete site safety paperwork.

Good understanding of construction site health and safety requirements.

Maintain company tools and equipment to a high standard and keep them secure at all times.

Full driving licence is an advantage.
