Job Description

Glennon Brother Cork are currently recruiting for experienced forklift drivers to join our continuous growing team in Fermoy.

This role involves shift work one week of day shift (7am – 3.30pm), the next week of evening shift (4pm to mid night).

This role is full-time permanent subject to successful probation period and involves working 39 hours per week. Hourly rate is €17.08 including shift allowance.

Our site is approx. 7km from Rathcormac and Fermoy – our site does not have a public bus route; candidates will require their own means of transport.

Knowledge & Experience

- Proven experience operating heavy forklift trucks
- Valid forklift licence/certification (or willingness to obtain/renew)
- Strong understanding of safe material handling practices
- Experience in a busy industrial, manufacturing, or outdoor environment
- High level of safety awareness and personal responsibility
- Experience in sawmill, timber, forestry, or similar heavy industry
- Familiarity with handling large, irregular loads (logs/timber packs)
- Tractor or additional plant operation experience
- Basic mechanical knowledge for routine equipment checks

Key Responsibilities

- Operate a 7/14 tonne forklift truck to transport logs, sawn timber, and materials safely across the site
- Load and unload timber, packs, and log deliveries efficiently and accurately
- Support the feeding and movement of materials to maintain production flow
- Stack and organise timber in designated storage areas to maximise space and accessibility
- Carry out daily pre-use checks and basic maintenance inspections on equipment
- Identify and report any defects, faults, or maintenance issues promptly
- Ensure all tasks are completed in line with health, safety, and environmental procedures

- Maintain a clean, safe, and orderly working environment (housekeeping standards)
- Work collaboratively with log yard, production, and transport teams
- Assist with general log yard duties as required
- Participate in training, safety briefings, and operational improvement initiatives
