Transport Operations & Commercial Driving - Apprenticeship

Job Description

First Year Apprentice Vacancy

DACHSER Ireland is seeking to recruit an enthusiastic and passionate logistics and commercial driving apprentice who will undertake the Transport Operations and Commercial Driving Apprenticeship at ATU Sligo for September 2026.

On this program you will progress from a category B license all the way to category C+E licence (Artic) with a proper understanding about logistics and transport from start to finish. No experience is necessary, but the candidate should have an interest in transport and logistics to progress to HGV driving. Category B (car) licence required.

Why work for DACHSER?

We're a family-owned global logistics provider delivering over 83 million shipments a year, including everything from fashion, DIY, chemicals to medical equipment. Internationally, we are among the top 15 logistics providers in terms of sales revenue. We combine and integrate the world's most intelligent logistics network capabilities that keep the global economy running – today and tomorrow.

DACHSER is a diverse, innovative and energetic workplace where everyone's ideas are always welcomed and considered. We strive to keep the family sentiment running through the business which creates an exciting, ambitious and supportive work ethic. Whether you are looking at opportunities in operations, as part of our Regional Office or support teams.

Benefits That Support You

At DACHSER, we believe in taking care of our people — inside and outside of work. Here's what you can enjoy as part of our team:

- Free Car Parking — hassle-free parking every day, so your commute is stress-free.
- Life Assurance — Death in Service benefit to provide peace of mind for you and your loved ones.
- Employee Assistance Programme — confidential support to help you manage any personal challenges affecting your wellbeing and work.
- Pension Plan — a flexible, tax-efficient pension scheme where you decide your contribution level, helping you plan.
- Health Perks — reimbursement of approved VDU eye wear and annual flu vaccination to keep you feeling your best.
- Bike to work scheme available

- C+E Licence – receive training and qualify for a licence over the two year period

Join Our Inclusive Family

At DACHSER, everyone is welcome. Diversity and equal opportunities are at the heart of who we are. We value the unique qualities each person brings, believing that diverse teams drive innovation and success. Because for us, logistics is a people business.

Purpose of role

At DACHSER Ireland you will take an active part in shaping your apprenticeship whilst passing through various departments in order to deepen your specialist knowledge of logistics. You will be able to build up your network at DACHSER and collaborate on all manner of projects both national and international. With your apprenticeship at DACHSER, you will become a part of a family company whose future is assured.
