Job Description

A New Season of Opportunity – Join Our Food & Beverage Team at Sheraton Athlone Hotel

Great service. Great teamwork. Real opportunities.

Take the next step in your hospitality career with Sheraton Athlone Hotel. We are recruiting Food & Beverage Assistants to join the teams in S Bar & Bistro and La Provence Brasserie. This is an excellent opportunity to work in one of Athlone's most stylish and welcoming hospitality environments, where personality, professionalism and a genuine commitment to guest service are valued. At Sheraton Athlone Hotel, we do not simply offer jobs – we support people in building rewarding hospitality careers.

The Role:

Food & Beverage Assistant As we move into the new season, we are looking for enthusiastic and dependable Food & Beverage Assistants to become part of our team. Our Food & Beverage outlets operate throughout the week, and these positions require candidates who can work flexibly across a varied roster. Applicants should be available for a combination of weekday and weekend shifts, which may include daytime, evening and public holiday hours. The role is ideal for someone who enjoys fast-paced service, engaging with guests and contributing to a supportive and professional team.

What You'll Be Doing

Delivering warm, personalised service that makes every guest feel genuinely welcome

Creating memorable bar and dining experiences with confidence and professionalism

Engaging with guests in a friendly, attentive and polished manner

Developing a strong knowledge of our menus, drinks offering and hotel facilities

Maintaining excellent Food & Beverage standards in keeping with our four-star reputation

Preparing and maintaining immaculate bar, restaurant and service areas

Following all cash-handling, billing, food safety and operational procedures accurately

Working collaboratively with colleagues to ensure smooth and efficient service

Who We're Looking For

Previous experience in a quality bar, restaurant or hospitality environment is an advantage

A positive, professional and proactive approach, with a strong focus on guest service

The ability to remain calm, organised and efficient during busy service periods

Strong spoken and written English

A genuine interest in hospitality and in creating excellent guest experiences

Reliable availability to work a flexible roster across weekdays and weekends, including a combination of daytime and evening shifts

If you bring enthusiasm, flexibility and a passion for service, we will provide the training and support to help you develop and grow with us.

Why You'll Love Working With Us
