Production Manager (Manufacturing)

Employer: Durnin's Fruit and Veg T/A Ninrud Limited

Location: Batestown, Drumconrath, Navan, Co. Meath, Eircode: C15 Y2TA

Contract: Full-time, Permanent Hours: 39 hours per week

Salary: €36,605 per annum

Vacancies: 1

We are seeking an experienced Production Manager to lead the manufacturing and processing operations in our busy fruit and vegetable production facility.

Key Responsibilities:

- Manage the daily running of the production line, including potato processing, fresh vegetable preparation, packing and prepared produce operations
- Plan production schedules, oversee manufacturing processes and maintain high standards of product quality and presentation
- Ensure full compliance with food safety and hygiene regulations (HACCP and BRCGS standards)
- Control stock, costs, waste and overall profitability of the production operation
- Lead, train and motivate the production team
- Deliver efficient, high-quality output to support our retail, catering and wholesale customers

Person Specification:

- Previous experience in a Production Manager or Manufacturing Manager role (ideally within food processing or fresh produce)
- Strong knowledge of food safety standards (Level 2/3 Food Hygiene essential; experience with HACCP/BRCGS preferred)

- Good leadership and team management skills
- Commercial awareness and the ability to drive efficiency and productivity
- Flexible with availability, including weekends

If you are passionate about fresh produce manufacturing and delivering quality from field to fork, we'd love to hear from you.
