Job Description

Join One of the Leading Landscape Companies in the Mid-West of Ireland

McKeogh Landscapes is an established landscape design and build company specialising in high-quality residential gardens throughout the region. We create premium outdoor spaces including patios, paving, planting, retaining walls, lawns and complete garden transformations.

Due to continued growth, we are looking for a skilled, reliable tiler to join our team. You'll carry out wall and floor tiling on residential projects, delivering a high-quality finish and keeping work areas clean and safe.

We're looking for someone who takes pride in their work, communicates well with customers and colleagues, and can complete jobs within agreed timescales.

Responsibilities

Prepare walls and floors for tiling, ensuring surfaces are suitable, level and clean.

Measure and plan tile layouts to achieve an accurate, neat finish.

Cut and fit tiles, including ceramic and porcelain.

Apply suitable adhesives, grout and sealants.

Remove existing tiles and carry out minor surface repairs where required.

Work around fixtures, fittings and corners with care and precision.

Coordinate with other trades to keep projects running smoothly.

Follow site safety procedures and look after tools, materials and customers' properties.

What we're looking for

Previous experience in wall and floor tiling.

Strong attention to detail and a consistently high standard of workmanship.

Ability to work independently and as part of a team.

Good timekeeping, reliability and clear communication.
