Job Description

Seasonal Position: April – October 2027

Right to Work in Ireland - Applicants must have valid permission to work in Ireland for the full duration of the seasonal contract, April–October 2027. The successful candidate must be able to provide evidence of their entitlement to work in Ireland before commencing employment. We are unable to sponsor employment permits for this position.

Accommodation assistance is provided for the duration of the seasonal contract.

We are seeking an experienced and professional Housekeeper to join our hospitality team within a prestigious private members' golf club. You will be responsible for maintaining the highest standards of cleanliness, presentation and comfort throughout the club's accommodation and facilities, ensuring an immaculate environment for our members and their guests.

The role requires someone with a strong eye for detail, excellent organisational skills and an understanding of the standards of cleanliness and discretion expected within a high-end hospitality environment. The successful candidate will take pride in their work and be committed to delivering a consistently high standard of housekeeping and guest care.

Key Requirements:

- Significant experience in housekeeping within luxury hotels, premium hospitality establishments or other high-end environments
- Proven ability to maintain exceptional standards of cleanliness, hygiene and presentation
- Strong attention to detail and a meticulous approach to cleaning and room preparation
- Experience with servicing guest bedrooms, bathrooms and communal areas to a consistently high standard
- Knowledge of professional cleaning practices, products, equipment and health and safety procedures

- Ability to identify and report maintenance issues, damages or items requiring attention
- Understanding of the importance of discretion, confidentiality and respect for members' and guests' privacy
- Excellent time management and organisational skills, with the ability to prioritise tasks effectively
- Professional manner, reliable work ethic and immaculate personal presentation
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team
- Flexible approach to working hours, including weekends and busy seasonal periods
- A genuine commitment to maintaining the highest standards of cleanliness, presentation and guest comfort

We are particularly interested in candidates with substantial, proven experience in luxury hotel or high-end hospitality housekeeping, who take pride in delivering exceptional standards and understand the importance of discretion, consistency and attention to detail.
