Lead service excellence in a professional corporate environment

Sodexo is seeking an experienced and proactive Cleaning Supervisor to lead our evening cleaning operations at a prestigious corporate client site in Leopardstown. This role is key to ensuring the highest standards of cleanliness, safety, and presentation are consistently delivered.

As a supervisor, you will take ownership of service delivery, support and guide your team, and ensure all cleaning activities are completed efficiently and in line with agreed standards.

Key Responsibilities:

Supervise, coordinate, and support a team of cleaning operatives to deliver high-quality cleaning services

Ensure all areas, including offices, meeting rooms, communal spaces, and washrooms, are maintained to a professional corporate standard

Allocate tasks, monitor performance, and ensure completion of daily and periodic cleaning schedules

Conduct regular quality checks and audits, addressing any issues promptly

Act as the first point of contact for client requests and operational queries during shift

Ensure full compliance with health, safety, and hygiene regulations, including safe use of equipment and materials

Support with training, onboarding, and development of team members

Manage stock levels of cleaning supplies and report any requirements

Complete shift handovers, records, and incident reports accurately

What We're Looking For:

Previous experience in a cleaning or facilities supervisory role

Strong leadership and team management skills with the ability to motivate and support others

Excellent attention to detail and commitment to high service standards

Good understanding of health & safety and cleaning best practices

Ability to work independently, make decisions, and respond to operational needs

Strong communication and organisational skills with a professional approach
